[Docket No. GT96-27-000]

Colorado Interstate Gas Co.; Notice of Filing of Refund Report

November 1, 1995.

Take notice that on October 27, 1995, Colorado Interstate Gas Company (CIG) filed a refund report in compliance with the Commission's Order Approving Refund Methodology for 1994 Overcollections dated February 22, 1995, issued to GAS Research Institute in Docket No. RP95-124-000. CIG states that refunds were paid by CIG on October 13, 1995.

CIG states that the report summarizes refunds made by CIG to its customers for the period January 1, 1994 through December 31, 1994 pursuant to the Commission's February 22, 1995 Order.

CIG states that copies of CIG's filing have been served on CIG's transportation customers, interested state commissions, and all parties to the proceedings.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 or 211 of the commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before November 8, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. GT96-20-000]

Columbia Gas Transmission Co.; Notice of Refund Report

November 1, 1995.

Take notice that on October 25, 1995, Columbia Gas Transmission Company (Columbia Gas) tendered for filing a Report of Gas Research Institute (GRI) Refund. Columbia Gas states that the refund report is being made in accordance with Ordering Paragraph C of the Commission's February 22, 1995, Order Approving Refund Methodology for 1994 Overcollections in GRI's Docket No. RP95-124-000.

Columbia Gas states it has credited its share of the GRI refund to its eligible firm customers, as a credit to invoices issued on or around September 10, 1995. Columbia Gas states that the refund totalling $1,014,961 represented GRI's overcollection of GRI surcharges for the period January 1, 1994 through December 31, 1994.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before November 8, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

[Docket No. FA94-23-000]

Connecticut Yankee Atomic Power Company; Order Establishing Hearing Procedures

November 2, 1995.

On July 21, 1995, the Deputy Chief Accountant issued a letter under delegated authority noting Connecticut Yankee Atomic Power Company's (CY) disagreement with respect to certain recommendations of the Division of Audits.¹ CY was requested to advise whether it would agree to the disposition of the contested matters under the shortened procedures provided for by Part 41 of the Commission's Regulations. 18 CFR Part 41.

By letter dated August 18, 1995, CY responded that it did not consent to the shortened procedures. Section 41.7 of the Commission's Regulations provides that in case consent to the shortened procedures is not given, the proceeding will be assigned for hearing. Accordingly, the Secretary, under authority delegated by the Commission, will set the matters for hearing.

Any interested person seeking to participate in this docket shall file a protest or motion to intervene pursuant to Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214) no later than 15 days after the date of publication of this order in the Federal Register.

It is ordered:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by section 402(a) of the Department of Energy Organization Act, the provisions of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 205, 206, and 301 thereof, and pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedures (18 CFR Chapter I), a public hearing shall be held concerning the appropriateness of CY's practices as referred to above.

(B) A Presiding Administrative Law Judge, to be designated by the Chief Administrative Law Judge, shall convene a prehearing conference in this proceeding, to be held within 45 days of the date of this order, in a hearing room of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426. The Presiding Judge is authorized to establish procedural dates and to rule on all motions (except motions to dismiss) as provided in the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(C) This order shall be published in the Federal Register.

Lois D. Cashell,
Secretary.
